

1. STAGECOACH HILL

Featuring 55 full-service, 50-amp pull through spots, four A-frame log cabins, seven cozy cabins, and a large bunkhouse for bigger families, Stagecoach Hill is fit for any family. With a fire pit, camp store, horseshoes, cornhole, live music, games during peak season, and hiking trails, this is the perfect spot for your extended trip to the ranch.

3. LOWER CAMPGROUND

The lower campground is you'll find 30-amp water/electric camping spots for hooking up your camper or RV, an in-ground pool, a playground, a bath house, a 10,000-square-foot pavilion, and Hurricane Creek, where you can rent tubes and kayaks and play to your heart's content.

5. DOLL MUSEUM

The Doll Museum is filled with dolls and gifts that have been sent to Loretta Lynn from her fans throughout her career.

7. GRIST MILL MUSEUM

Here, you'll see the original generator and control panel used to power the Mill and Loretta's Historic Home as well as the equipment used in the production of cornmeal in the late 1800s.

9. WESTERN TOWN

Overlooking Hurricane Creek and a scenic waterfall at the Grist Mill, Western Town is where you'll find museums, gift shops, and guided tours. It is also home to the Butcher Holler Home Replica, Simulated Coal Mine #5, Western Store, Mill Shop, and Loretta's Shop.

2. BOONE HILL

If you want easy access to the main highway and seclusion from the rest of the ranch's attractions, try staying in the Boone Hill section. Six cabins sit in a horseshoe cul-de-sac with a gazebo and charcoal grills in the middle.

4. COAL MINER'S DAUGHTER MUSEUM

This 18,000 square foot museum is dedicated to Loretta Lynn's fans and filled with memorabilia, awards, and mementos from her famous friends.

6. LORETTA'S FRONTIER HOMESTEAD

This museum features original, furnished log cabins with more than four hundred artifacts like tools, saws, saddles, cookware, utensils, crocks, churns, clothing, horse-drawn equipment, and wagons.

8. NATIVE AMERICAN ARTIFACT MUSEUM

This museum on Loretta Lynn's Ranch is an homage to her proud Cherokee heritage.

10. GRIST MILL GIFT SHOP

At the heart of Hurricane Mills, the Grist Mill Gift Shop offers country-themed selections like jams, jellies, sauces, locally made and sourced crafts, and Kentucky Coal souvenirs.

AREA MAP

11. LORETTA'S SHOP

This shop features Loretta Lynn souvenirs including replica guitars, t-shirts, "Coal Miner's Daughter" glassware, and more.

12. WESTERN STORE

This is the main gift shop for The Ranch and where you will find hats, boots, shirts, accessories, kids clothing, and toys. This is also where you'll purchase tickets for guided tours.

13. LORETTA'S SNACK SHOP

The Snack Shop is a rustic-themed diner offering a variety of foods, drinks, ice cream, and handmade milkshakes.

14. CAMP STORE

Located on Stagecoach Hill, The Camp Store is where you'll find your morning coffee or cappuccino, soft drinks, beer, ice, firewood, and any other convenience store items you might need.

13. LADY LORETTA BOUTIQUE

This boutique offers personalized Loretta Lynn items like pictures, books, jewelry, and additional memorabilia.

The suggested tour route is outlined below.

